

You signed up for EdCamp...Now what!?

Karen Dreger & Doug Michlovitz

- Sharing our strengths as educators.
- Cheerful good will
- Mutual respect
- Shared enthusiasm for education.

EdCamp 101

Ed Camp: How do we get ready...

- Open
- Passionate
- Collaborative conversations with educators from all walks of life.

HOW TO BE AWESOME AT EDCAMP!

➔ START A CONVERSATION

A session can begin with an idea...

a question...
a problem...
a doubt...
an opinion...
a story.

You do NOT need to be 'The Expert,'
just someone who wants to learn!

➔ LISTEN TO YOUR FEET

If you are in a session that is not interesting LEAVE! EdCamp is about your learning, not someone's EGO!

Nuts and Bolts

- Index cards
- markers on your table
- Write ANYTHING you are interested in learning more about on ONE index card One idea per Post it note - one post it per person
- Bring to stage and place on the chart
- Take a break and visit our coffee/drink table

EdCamp Sessions:

Kit Kats	Snickers	Peanut Butter Cups	Hershey Kisses
Baby Ruths	Mars Bars	100 Grand	Pay Day

EdCamp

We wanted to thank you for coming to our Edcamp.

We would appreciate it if you could fill out our brief padlet(or google form) survey.

- What did you like about EdCamp?
- If you did not like it, what would you change?
- Would you like to see EdCamp on a bigger scale?